Damage to the cars of Mrs. Mummert and Forry was estimated by police at $50 each, and $200 to Sell's. Sell was charged with following too close for conditions before Justice of the Peace William Y. HEALTH FORUM IS CONDUCTED HERE BY COUNCIL

Sixty-one physicians, dentists, social workers, clergymen, educators and housewives attended a Health Forum Wednesday evening at the VFW Home, E. Middle St., under sponsorship of the Adams County Council of Community Services.

After a talk by the president of the Medical Society of Pennsylvania, Dr. Elmer G. Shelley, of North East, describing health services from a federal governmental to a local level, the group heard specific health services available locally from representatives of eleven local organizations and agencies.

Dr. James H. Allison, secretary of the Adams County Medical Society, introduced the speaker, who has been a general practitioner for 30 years and has been active in civic and fraternal affairs in his community.

Thirty hospital beds and bed-side commodes are lent for home use in the county, free of charge, to heart patients; a throat culture clinic is conducted at the Warner Hospital and is used by an average of 30 patients a month; oxygen for home use and other services are rendered by this agency. Rev. Held was also chairman of the committee on arrangements for the forum.

WOMAN DIES AFTER SETTING CLOTHES AFIRE

Mrs. Dorothy Cruser Fague, 60, Chambersburg, died Wednesday night at 7 o'clock in the Chambersburg Hospital of burns suffered when her clothing caught fire about 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at her home.

She fled from the basement of the house after her clothing became ignited. Two neighbors ran to her aid and smothered the fire with a blanket. She was removed to the Chambersburg Hospital where death occurred about five hours later.

Chambersburg police said they were called to the scene by firemen who found clothing soaked in kerosene. Police and Franklin County coroner, J. D. Goshen, listed the death as suicide and said Mrs. Fague had gone to the basement of her home and poured kerosene from an antique lamp over her clothes, and then set them afire. The coroner said she had been under a physician's care and had been dependent over a period of several weeks.

The hearing for Robert L. Boyer, 156 York St., scheduled for Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder, was postponed for one week and Boyer renewed his bail Wednesday evening.

U.N. Airlifts First Group Of Police Force In Canal Zone Block Red Volunteer Threat

LONDON (AP)—First units of the U.N. Middle East police force landed in the Suez Canal zone today. They were rushed in on urgent U.N. orders in a move to forestall the threat of Communist "volunteers" being poured into the tense area.

The first Swiss airliner loaded with 45 Danish troops touched down behind the Egyptian lines at Abu Suweir at 9:30 a.m. A second plane carrying 47 Norwegians landed at 10:02 a.m.

Abu Suweir is on the west side of the canal near Ismailia.

A third plane carrying equipment for the international police force landed 45 minutes later. The Swissair planes were chartered by the U.N. to move the police units and supplies to Egypt.

100 In Second Group

Word of the planes' arrival was radioed to the U.N. staging area at Capodichino, Italy, near Naples. Swissair officials said the aircraft were making a quick turnaround, but it appeared unlikely that a second contingent could be ferried to the canal zone today.

Later a U.N. spokesman said a second group of about 100 men will leave the staging area tomorrow for Egypt. He said the second contingent would be made up of the first Colombian troops and another party of Norwegians.

The command at Capodichino announced that the "technical problems with which we were faced seem now to be solved."

A spokesman added that the shuttling of planes between the staging area and the canal zone will be speeded up in the next few days.

Unknown Service Length

Nothing was said, however, about solution of the major political problems of where the force would operate in Egypt and for how long.

Orders for the U.N. peace army to get moving to Egypt were issued last night after Arab diplomatic source had reported in Moscow that President Nasser had requested Russia to send volunteer forces to Egypt immediately.

Moscow dispatches today said

MRS. HARTMAN GIVEN SCROLL AT ANNIVERSARY "AG" MEETING

A scroll, honoring the memory of Merle T. "Dutch" Hartman, Adams County farm agent from 1929 to 1953, and all leaders of the Extension Association over the years was presented to Mrs. M. T. Hartman Wednesday evening at a program in the Biglerville Grade School auditorium marking the 40th anniversary of the founding of the Adams County Extension Association.

More than 200 were jammed into the auditorium for the program. Myles Starnes, Aspers R. D., who served as narrator for much of the review of 40 years of agriculture in Adams County, and president of the Extension Association, presented the scroll to Mrs. Hartman.

Engraved on the scroll were these words: "The Adams County Extension Association honors Merle T. Hartman, County Agent 1929-1953, able leader and useful citizen. This tribute is paid Merle Hartman for the unselfish and valued service which he contributed, and as a worthy representative of all leadership which served Adams County since the establishment of the Extension program in 1916. With this declaration their many friends acknowledge a deep sense of gratitude for the unmeasured improvements in production and distribution of the products of our farms, in the increased conveniences and comforts of our homes, in the enrichment of family and community living, and for the stimulation and guidance of talent and worthy purposes of our people." The scroll was signed by Myles E. Starnes as president and Mrs. Clarence Shultz as secretary of the extension association.

Recall Old Days

Slides showing muddy country roads, the threshing machine in operation, hand drawing of water from wells, the horse and plow, and the wash tub and washing board were shown to recall "The Good Old Days," as Starnes told of the average farm of 40 years ago.

"The Harmonies," Guy Beam, Dale Roth, Fay Myers and Kenneth Beam of the York Springs Lions Club, sang various "old time songs" at intervals throughout the program.

The beginning of Extension was depicted by a group of men at "the first meeting in 1916."

The group laughed its approval of a series of skits depicting "Forty Years of Agriculture" narrated by Guy Beamer. Old-fashioned dairymaking methods were depicted by a mock cow which succeeded in kicking

Recreation Board Meets Wednesday

Plans were formulated to make a survey of the Recreation Field and have a map of the park drawn indicating the location of the various equipment, playing fields and courts by the Recreation Board at a meeting Wednesday night at the Engine House. The survey and map will facilitate any further plans of the board, it is hoped.

A new location for the firemen's carnival next summer will be discussed November 25 when the Recreation Board and a committee of firemen meet. Because the heavy rains last year flooded the carnival on the Rec Field, it is believed that a location on a more elevated site is desirable.

The posts and cable being placed around the Rec Field to prevent drivers from trespassing is nearly completed, it was announced.

Best Vote Mark Set By Fairfield

Republican County Chairman William I. Shields came up with some figures today showing that Fairfield borough had the largest percentage of its registered voters at the polls November 6 while the second district of nearby Hamilton-Twp. had the lowest mark of any district in the county.

Fairfield's percentage was 91.4 with 234 of its 256 registered voters casting their ballots. The Hamilton-Twp. district, smallest in the county, had 39 of its 52 voters at the polls, or 75 per cent, the lowest in the county.

Biglerville was second with 91.2 per cent and the Second Ward of Littlestown was third with 90.5 per cent. Highland Twp. the second district of Mt. Pleasant Twp. tied for fourth place at 89.9 per cent each.

Cumberland Twp. saw 86 per cent of its voters at the polls and the Gettysburg districts made these records: 1st Ward, 1st Precinct, 84.3 per cent; 1st Ward 2nd Precinct, 88.8; Second Ward, 83.6, and Third Ward, 85.3 per cent.

SHETTERS HOST GHS SQUAD AT 10TH BANQUET

Gettysburg High School football players were told to start working now for next year if they wish to improve by Gettysburg College coaches John Yovlesin and Bob Davies at the tenth annual football dinner tendered by Mr. and Mrs. Cloud Shetter at the Shetter House Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Shetter started their annual policy of giving the high school football players, coaches and cheer leaders a banquet 10 years ago when their son, Robert, was a member of the football squad.

John Yovlesin, Gettysburg College football coach, told the group, "Your coaches did a wonderful job of handling you inexperienced boys in a tough conference."

Stresses Preparation

Bob Davies, All-American basketball player as a college player at Seton Hall and later as a pro with the Rochester Royals and now basketball coach of Gettysburg College, told the group, "It's not whether you won or lost but how you performed before you played the game."

Davies stressed the importance of playing all sports in the preparation for one. "If you are not ready to step in and play when your opportunity comes, you let your coaches, your teammates and classmates down. If right now, tonight, you decided to do something about improving your record of the past two years, Gettysburg High School will win a lot more games next year. You will make your coaches, teachers and your town prouder of you."

Coach Howard G. Shoemaker introduced co-captains Bob Hess and John Wheeler, and the latter presented both Mr. and Mrs. Shetter

PUERTO RICAN ON STAND IN OWN DEFENSE

Felipe Serrano Malave, 30, Gardner R. 1, this afternoon was on the witness stand in Adams County court in his own defense. He faces a second degree murder charge brought as a result of the stabbing of a fellow Puerto Rican laborer, Elizeo "the Barber" Rodriguez Cruz, 31, at a labor camp on the William Lott farm, Gardner R. 1, September 29.

There was a possibility, attorneys said, that the case might go to the jury, eight men and four women, by late this afternoon.

Malave admitted slashing at Cruz with a table knife during an altercation in the kitchen of the Lott farm house late on the night of September 29. He admitted cutting Cruz and said there "was blood on my hands and on the knife."

Some Discrepancies

But Dr. Roy W. Gifford, associate surgeon at the Warner hospital, testified that the wound which caused Cruz death could not have come from a kitchen table knife. The wound, the physician said, would have had to have been made by a thinner knife that was sharp on both sides.

Malave's story did not agree in some respects with those of witnesses who appeared before he reached the stand. Malave said he had been in an altercation with Cruz on the second floor of the house earlier in the evening. Malave said he had a knife in his hand then while Malave had a razor. He said they were parted by Bonifacio Rivera, another Puerto Rican laborer at the camp, and the two disputing men went to their respective rooms.

Malave said he later went to the kitchen and was eating when something struck him on the head. He claimed it was Cruz wielding a piece of lead pipe. The pipe, used to connect doubledecker bunks, was shown to the jury.

Fought With Cruz

Malave said that after he was struck, he rose, and fought with Cruz, slashing at him with the table knife with which he had been

GEO. W. BAKER, ABBOTTSTOWN, DIES SUDDENLY

George Washington Baker, 84, well-known resident of Abbottstown, died suddenly at his home there Wednesday afternoon from a heart attack. He had been raking leaves on the lawn of his home when he was stricken. Death followed in a matter of minutes.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, said death was due to a coronary occlusion. The time of death was given as 2:25 p.m.

Mr. Baker, who was born in Hamilton Twp., was a son of the late David and Susan (Wolf) Baker. His wife, Maude Hollinger, died in 1920.

Was Commissioners' Clerk

He attended school in Abbottstown and then went to the State Normal School at Shippensburg before beginning a 19-year career as a public school teacher that extended from 1889 to 1908.

About 40 years ago he served for six years as clerk to the Adams County Commissioners and later was employed for 15 years in the office of the state Auditor General at Harrisburg. He retired from that work in 1937.

He had been prominent in Republican political circles in Adams County for many years. He was a former committeeman in Abbottstown and for 10 or 12 years was chairman of the Republican Executive Committee under the administration of John H. Basehor as county chairman. He had been a member of that executive committee for additional years. In 1948, he was an alternate delegate from this congressional district to

ATTRACTS 200

Approximately 200 attended the November meeting of the Arendtsville Parent Teacher Association Wednesday evening at the grade school building there with the Rev. Robert K. Shaul, Arendtsville Lutheran pastor, as the speaker. His subject was "The Changing Emphasis in Our Public Schools." President Donald Ernst presided at the meeting.

These committee assignments made previously by the executive board of the PTA were announced: Program, Delmar Kime, Mrs. Richard Allison, and Mrs. Charles McDannell; Finance, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Diehl and Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Hartman; Membership, Mrs. Richard Slaybaugh, Mrs. Edward Mickey and Mrs. Walter Roberts; publicity, Herbert Miller, Mrs. Burton Wolff and Mrs. Ernest Rebert; and Nominating, Paul Fissell, Mrs. Wilmore Tuckey, Mrs. Clark Hartman and Mrs. Earl Constable.

Mrs. Fred Lewis presented a report on the Harrisburg sessions attended September 30 through October 2 of the state congress of Parents and Teachers.

Get Playground Equipment
The Rev. Mr. Shaul spoke of the responsibilities of the home, church, community and the schools in making a well-rounded educational program for children. The primary objective of education, he said, is the development of God-given abilities. He spoke of the new facilities available to education.

A survey showed that parents of children in the home room of Miss S. Alma Wert were present in the largest numbers and that room plaque. More than 50 per cent of the room parents were at the meeting.

Principal Lewis Bosserman reported $2,500 has been spent from the school's general fund, much of it raised by efforts of the pupils, for new playground equipment. Units added included four sets of swings, four sets of seesaws, two castle towers and two merry-go-rounds.

Following the program an "open house" was observed in the school with teachers in each room to greet the parents. There were movies for the children in the general purpose room during the PTA meeting.

eating. He had left the other knife upstairs, he said.

The two men fought for a short time and then Cruz went to the second floor, after Rivera had arrived and helped break up the battle. Cruz collapsed at the head of the stairs and Malave said he helped put Cruz in his bed, then went to his own room where he remained until he heard Mr. Lott arriving. Seeking to avoid "trouble," he fled the house and hid in the hills.

Rivera had claimed that Malave aided Rivera in washing blood from Cruz after helping put him on the bed. Malave said he did not aid in washing Cruz, but had gone directly to his own room. Officials arriving at the scene found that Cruz had apparently been washed, and a blood soaked undershirt had been removed from his body.

Malave said that after Cruz had started upstairs from the fight in the kitchen, he had "tossed" the kitchen knife "toward the table." Malave claimed that when he left Cruz, Cruz was alive.

Verdict In Damage Case
Witnesses Wednesday afternoon and today included Peta M. Brad, Carlisle; Victor Rodriguez, Gardner; L. I. Dr. Gifford, Rivera, State Policemen John J. McKenna and James Treas, and Malave.

The Commonwealth rested its case against Malave at 10:18 o'clock this morning. When court recessed at noon Malave was undergoing cross examination.

The trial was only one in the court house this morning. Tuesday another jury heard the trespass action brought by Elizabeth K. Hilly, 126 West St., against James Harry McIntyre, Detroit, Mich. Judge Dale Shuart, Carlisle, presided at the trial while Judge W. C. Sheely continued with the murder trial. The jury in the Hilly case found in favor of Mrs. Hilly in the sum of $1,500. The action arose from an auto accident seven miles east of here on the Lincoln Highway September 1, 1955.

APPEAL FOR TWO NEGRO ORPHANS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the City of Philadelphia will appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court a decision denying two Negro orphan boys admission to all-white Girard College, City Solicitor David Berger said yesterday.

The college, a private institution, was founded 125 years ago by the will of financier Stephen Girard. In his testament he specified that the institution be exclusively for "poor male white orphans."

Upheld Will
Last Monday the Pennsylvania Supreme Court upheld Girard's will by a 5-1 decision.

Berger said the appeal would be made on the question "was the refusal to admit the two Negro boys to Girard College solely because of their race a violation of the 14th Amendment to the Constitution?"

"This amendment prohibits states from depriving anyone of 'life, liberty or property without due process of law' and from denying 'equal protection of the law,'" Girard was a ship owner, merchant and banker. He died in 1831.

BOMBER BURNS
WITH 21 ABOARD

DENVER (AP)—A ten-engine B36 bomber with 21 persons aboard crashed and burned north of Denver's municipal airport today, but first reports said there was no loss of life.

An officer at Lowry Air Force Base said all 21 men were taken to the hospital. He said the condition of 17 was reported not critical, but he had no reports on the others.

The crash was near the edge of federal government property of the Rocky Mountain Arsenal.

There are dwellings in the general area, but apparently the plane came down east of the closest houses.

Residents of the area were reported to have helped pull injured airmen from the wrecked craft.

The plane took off at Lowry AFB at 6:29 a.m. and radioed that it would attempt an emergency landing at Stapleton, about three miles north of Lowry. It veered left and crashed about a mile north of the north-south Stapleton runway.

Drives Fiery Truck
Into Vacant Lot

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Residents of the Lawrenceville district are thankful today for the courage of an oil company employee who drove his flaming gasoline truck to a less populated spot even though he "fully expected to be killed."

The truck was being unloaded at a garage and some of the fuel spilled on the floor and was ignited. Flames raced along the floor and began eating at the tank truck.

ling over both the milk bucket and lady milk in a scene showing the "old days." The cattle of 40 years ago were described as "strange and wondrous to behold, they were of no breed, but of all breeds, mixed together and producing animals that were almost a new breed." The bull in the herd of 40 years ago gave credit for "leading father to enrich the English language with a new and startling vocabulary."

Compared to the mixed breeds and low-producing herds of 40 years ago were present purebred herds, milking machines and high production.

Chickens and a pig were on stage to illustrate discussion of the development of poultry and livestock. As Beamer outlined the development in fruit over the 40 years, a group used a 50-year-old hand-operated sprayer to show the methods used nearly a half century ago.

More Contrasts
Comparisons between homemaking of 40 years ago and today won laughter. Mrs. Nevin Epley as an old-fashioned garbed housewife kneaded dough while Mrs. Clarence Shultz as "today's housewife" read a magazine until the breadman arrived. Another "old timer," Mrs. Melvin Nace, churned butter while Mrs. Melvin Nace Jr. arrived with a pound of creamery butter. Sewing and food preparation were compared. "Time for Bed" brought laughter when Mrs. Emory Gitt appeared on the stage wearing an old-fashioned night gown, complete with crocheted night cap, carrying a kerosene lamp and another convenience familiar to retirement prior to the advent of indoor plumbing. A quartet comprised of Mrs. Harry Wiesel, Mrs. Aaron Rohrbach, Mrs. Orville Newman and Mrs. Irvin Conover, accompanied by Mrs. Mervin Welkert, provided music for the skit.

Mrs. Garnet Coble served as narrator for the Youth program section, during which the Senior Extension Club presented a folk dance and members of the 4-H clubs, garbed in blue capes and caps, depicted the various activities of the junior extension program.

Former Extension Home Economists here, Mrs. Ward Houck, Biglerville; and Mrs. Ada B. Konhaus, Carlisle, were introduced as were Archie Hug, former assistant county agent, and John Fogle, Cumberland County farm agent.

A letter was read from H. F. Hershey, who served as first county agent in Adams County. Now manager of Peerless Orchards at Ham-burg he wrote: "It hardly seems as if it was forty years ago that I started extension work in Adams County and I have never forgotten the associations I made in the two years I was there."

Starnier announced that the annual meeting of the Agricultural Extension Association will be held in the form of a banquet at the Fairfield High School December 11 at 7 p.m.

Turkeys were made from potatoes and construction paper by members of Bendersville Brownie Troop 29 during their meeting at Wednesday afternoon. Tamea Miller was the officer of the day. The meeting opened with the Brownie Promise. Dues were collected by Judy Fleming. The attendance and dues were marked by Patty Baldwin and calendar money was collected. Charleen Thompson served as song leader and Gayle Pitzer was in charge of games.

The meeting closed with the friendship circle and taps. The Brownies were assisted by Mrs. William Wright and Mrs. Leroy Routsong, leaders, and Mrs. George Black, committee member.

An Informal Victory Dance in honor of the Biglerville High School football players and coaches will be held Saturday evening from 8 until 11 o'clock in the high school gymnasium under sponsorship of the student council. There will be no admission.

A Thank Offering service will be held at Flor's Lutheran Church, McKnightstown, Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. Harvey D. Hoover, Gettysburg, will be the guest speaker.

Nineteen new members were inducted into the Junior Tri-Hi-Y of Biglerville Junior High School at exercises Monday evening at the school. Officers of the Senior Tri-Hi-Y inducted the new members.

L. F. Steiner, Honolulu, spent several days recently with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Steiner, and family, Flora Dale.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tate, Biglerville R. 2, recently spent two days in Washington, D. C., with Nowab Sarker, an international Foreign Youth Exchange student who spent some time with them this past summer. In Washington they attended a conference with exchange students. Today's Talk

DOES ANYONE KNOW YOU?

The Greek philosophers, as well as many since that early time, have asserted over and over again that we have of ourselves is scant indeed, but what knowledge we do have is very important because it keeps pointing to other knowledge to "know thyself." The knowledge that keeps enriching the mind.

But do other people know us? How can we place much trust in their appraisal when we know next to nothing about ourselves? It is a smattering knowledge at best. We are constantly misjudged, misinterpreted, and at times cruelly maligned, for no reason in the world. How can one know, even the best friend we have? We are often a stranger to ourselves!

What a world of unhappiness we bear because of the ignorance of others in regard to us! Without knowing a single apt fact about another, we dare to build them in our image and endue them with a character that is entirely alien to the one developed.

Does anyone actually know you? It takes a long time and "a heap o' livin'" to know another person, though that person be one's own brother or sister. How, then, can any one of us judge another accurately? The brother of W. H. Hudson, author of many books, and especially that famous one "Green Mansions," stated that, of all the people in the world he knew, he knew this brother, W. H. Hudson, the least of them all.

You have to live in a person's heart a long time before you become worthy to judge or misjudge such a one. The heart, however, is a wonderful place in which to get cleansed, and often made new, so that a new world of understanding is revealed. We invite people to know us, or else we repel them. But we all, to a great extent, in the secrecy of our hearts, have "that something" which is never fully revealed.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Sandwich"

TRUE GREATNESS

To bear a burden cheerfully
A little way and still to smile
Is better than to fearfully
And dimly trudge mile on mile.

Some simple little kindly deed
Does more to cheer a man's abode
Than favors big in time of need
That have been grudgingly bestowed.

'Tis not the distance that man goes,
'Tis not how much his strength will bear.
It is the spirit that he shows
When he is burdened down with care.

It's better far with cheerfulness
To try to do your task and fail,
Than leaving when you've won success
But discontent along your trail.

It isn't what you give that counts
But how you give, that God will see.
The widow's mite to much amounts,
For it was given cheerfully.

Deeds in themselves are little things
Unless the spirit in them glows,
For from the heart true greatness springs
In how, not what it does, it shows.

DANGEROUS GAMBLE SEEN BY RUSSIA ON "VOLUNTEERS"

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russia is believed to be making a dangerous gamble for very high stakes with its offer of "volunteers" to assist in Egypt's struggle against Britain, France and Israel.

The danger is that large-scale Soviet military intervention in this vitally important area of the world, even through the device of volunteers, could lead to a conflict that would touch off World War III.

President Eisenhower told a news conference yesterday that the United States would back the U. N. in any steps to oppose entry of Russian or Red Chinese "volunteers."

Not Limited To Resolutions

He did not say what precise steps might be contemplated. The U. N., he said, "is not by any manner of means limited to resolutions."

The prize which may be luring the Russians on is ultimate domination of the region. The men in the Kremlin may see the present confused and uncertain conditions in the region as an opportunity to try for a strangle hold on the flow of oil, the sea lanes and the air bases that make the Middle East one of the most strategically important pieces of geography anywhere.

Yet the risks are great and some officials here are still of the opinion that the Soviets perhaps are bluffing. They argue that even a Soviet bluff, backed up possibly by token assignments of "volunteers," would serve three large purposes:

1. To present the Soviet Union as the protector and defender of the Arab world and thereby earn Arab good will which would create long-range political influence for Moscow in the area.

2. To frustrate the United Nations peace program, based on putting a U. N. police force into Egypt and getting the British and French out. The underlying aim here would be to keep the Middle East in turmoil as long as possible and see what further opportunities might open up for building Russian strength and influence there, perhaps with less risk than at present.

3. To throw a war scare into the Western nations and thereby divert their attention from Russian brutality in Hungary.

A bluff can be called. Even if the Russians did not intend seriously to go through with the offer of "volunteers," they could easily find themselves in a situation where they would have to make good anyway or accept a loss of face that would damage their prestige severely.

MARINE ADMITS HE MISTREATED YOUNG RECRUITS

PARRIS ISLAND, S.C. (AP)—Marine Pfc Frederick A. Renton, accused of more than a dozen cases of striking and mistreating recruits at this sprawling Marine base, pleaded guilty at his court-martial trial yesterday to two specifications of the charges against him.

Several more charges remained against the 19-year-old New York City youth as the trial entered its second day.

Renton admitted forcing privates Robert A. Palaia and Clement R. Ploof Jr. to suspend themselves on their elbows and toes while the point of a bayonet was held under their stomachs.

Renton was accused of holding the bayonet himself in the case of Palaia while another recruit, Edward R. Juneau Jr., allegedly was forced to do it in the case of Ploof.

Trainee Beat Recruit

Another trainee, Joseph W. Androlowicz, testified that he beat another recruit on the instigation of Renton.

Pvt. Harry Dunevant told the court that he was beaten up in a shower room. He testified that though he was "dazed and bleeding," Renton, who was the non-commissioned officer on duty at the time, refused to see to it he got medical aid.

Pvt. B. C. Howe of Northampton, Mass., testified that he was hit twice in the stomach for being slow in taking his mattress out of a barracks to air.

Since charges have been filed Renton has been reduced in rank from corporal to private first class and has been restricted to the base.

YOUTH STARS WITH FOLLIES

HERSHEY, Pa. — The "youngest old pro" in the business, that's what they say about Richard Dwyer, star of Shipstads and Johnson Ice Follies of 1957, coming to Hershey Sports Arena, November 27 through December 8.

Richard was 14½ years old when he joined Ice Follies in June, of 1950. He immediately assumed the mantle of Roy Shipstad, early star of the show. Coached by the old master himself, young Dwyer soon achieved "rave" notices from critics across the country.

Almost six years later, Dwyer, now 21 years old, is a veteran of 2,500 performances in his "Top Hat and Tails" solo. As the "Young Debonaire," Dwyer is surrounded by six pretty Ice Follies, each costumed in a Renie creation costing $2,500.

Dwyer also pairs with Georgiana Sutton, a pert and cute ex-University of California coed, in an exciting number entitled, "Fancy Free."

Both Dwyer and his attractive partner are continuing their education on tour. Dick takes a correspondence course from Loyola, of Los Angeles, and Georgiana is carrying on via mail with the University of Southern California.

Memories Of Dead Visitor Linger On

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maldonado heard something move in their bedroom. They called Maldonado's brother Manuel. After inspecting a portable closet, Manuel said:

"It must be a badger. Badgers bite. We'll have to kill it."

The brothers pressed against the closet door to squeeze the animal to death. But the badger turned out to be a skunk. The skunk died. But the memory lingered on.

5,000 REFUGEES GO TO KILMER

CAMP KILMER, N.J. (AP)—This sprawling Army installation, a staging area for five million GIs during World War II, is coming to life again to receive 5,000 Hungarian refugees from Soviet territory.

The first contingent of 250 service troops arrived yesterday and began restoring heating and lighting to the camp's 1,139 buildings, most of them wooden barracks.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerly said in Washington there is "a very good chance" that the first refugees will arrive at the camp by the end of next week.

The Army here said that before this week is out, the troops on hand to take care of the Hungarian men, women and children will number 600. They will include doctors, nurses, mess personnel, orderlies and administrative staffs.

Lt. Gen. Thomas W. Herren, left Army commander, said Army Secretary Wilbur M. Brucker has charged him with the refugees' reception, processing and welfare given over to the appropriate "until such time as they can be civilian welfare agencies."

Camp Kilmer went into standby status July 1, 1955, with only a caretaker force to watch over its 1,572 acres.

Suggest Act To Tax Wages In City

ALTOONA, Pa. (AP)—A move was underway today to ask the legislature for permission to impose wage taxes on all persons employed in cities, regardless of whether they live in the cities.

The Central district of the Pennsylvania League of Cities at a meeting here yesterday resolved to ask the league to take action on the proposal at its state convention.

Mayor Walter Rose of Johnstown pointed out that cities such as Philadelphia currently tax everyone who works in the city although many persons live outside Philadelphia.

The organization says the privilege it asks is guaranteed under Act 481 of the General Assembly. Mayor Rose heads the resolution committee to press for action. He will be assisted by Mayors Robert W. Anthony of Altoona and D. H. Peddie of Lock Haven.

HOOVER TO TELL U. N. POSITION OF U.S. IN FAR EAST

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Acting Secretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr. is scheduled to spell out today for the U. N. General Assembly America's position on the Middle East and Hungarian crises.

There was some question, however, whether the 79-nation body would become bogged down in a wrangle over completing its agenda that might delay the start of general debate until tomorrow.

The United States last night pushed a resolution through the powerful Steering Committee recommending that the Assembly postpone for another year any action on seating Red China in the U. N. The 8-5 decision countered India's proposal that the Assembly put the question on its agenda.

India and the Soviet Union were expected to carry their fight to the Assembly. Although there was little likelihood of the committee's decision being upset, a protracted debate could follow.

Tension Eases

Tension over the Middle East eased a little in the Assembly last night when word came that first units of the new U. N. police force had been ordered by Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld to proceed to Egypt. Hammarskjöld left New York by plane to take personal charge of the operation.

Hammarskjöld acted as dispatches from Moscow said Egypt had called on Russia to permit thousands of "volunteers" to go to the Arab state.

President Eisenhower commented in Washington that the United States would oppose — probably through the U. N. — the entry of any such volunteers into Egypt.

Before leaving New York's Idlewild Airport Hammarskjöld voiced hope the U. N. force would succeed in "establishing peace and order."

"It is the first experience of its kind," he told newsmen. "Let us hope it will succeed."

South Penn, WPIAL Titles At Stake In Friday Games; L.M. After 31st Straight

HARRISBURG (AP) — Two major championships will be decided in games scheduled for the last weekend of the 1956 Pennsylvania schoolboy football campaign.

Titles in the WPIAL and South Penn are at stake along with another all-winning season for Lower Merion, Suburban Philadelphia league champ, which can boost the state's longest major unbeaten streak to 31 games.

Charleroi and Jeannette, selected by the WPIAL football committee, will meet for the Class AA title tomorrow night. Two other teams, Sharon and Ambridge, also finished their season undefeated but the playoff contenders had a higher rating.

In the Class A WPIAL ranks defending champion Bradbrook was named to oppose undefeated Carmichael for the title while in Class B Midway meets Neville for the crown. Both games will be played tonight.

Triple Tie Possible
In the South Penn defending champion Carlisle entertains Mechanicsburg. A win or tie for Carlisle would give the Herd its third straight league title. A Mechanicsburg win will mean a triple championship for Mechanicsburg, Carlisle and Middletown, if Middletown beats Waynesboro tomorrow night.

Lower Merion will be out for its third straight perfect season against Radnor, a team Lower Merion beat 27-6 last year.

In the Eastern Conference, Swyersville and St. Clair appear almost certain to take the northern and southern divisions and meet in a Dec. 1 playoff but the official winners will not be known until Nov. 24 when conference officials meet at Hazleton. Both teams have finished their seasons.

Here's how the conferences look:

WPIAL AA — Charleroi and Jeannette meet tomorrow to determine a successor to Alliquipp as league champ.

Sect. II—Gorry replaced Warren as champ and finished undefeated.

Western Conference — Indiana was declared champion succeeding Clearfield and Huntingdon when Punxsutawney beat DuBois 27-7 last Monday. Punxsutawney's win gave Indiana 10 more points in the rating system to push the team seven points ahead of Tyrore.

Need Certification
Eastern Conference — Swyersville and St. Clair are rated at the top. If certified winners they would replace West Scranton and Coal Twp., the overall defending conference champ.

South Penn — Carlisle meets Mechanicsburg tomorrow for the title.

Central Penn—Defending champion and league leading Williamsport plays Steelton Thanksgiving for the title. If Williamsport loses Harrisburg John Harris could tie the Millionaires with a Thanksgiving Day win over Harrisburg William Penn.

Keystone — Coal Twp. replaced Mount Carmel and Berwick as champion.

Susquehanna — Milton replaced Danville as champion.

Suburban Philadelphia A—Lower Merion won the title for the third straight year.

Thanksgiving Title Game
Ches Mont — The title will be decided Thanksgiving when defending champion and league leader Conestoga meets West Chester and contender Potomac is at Downingtown. A Conestoga win would give the team its third straight title.

Big Three — Allentown meets Bethlehem Thanksgiving. Allentown has already beaten Easton, which won its Bethlehem game.

MANTLE VOTED MOST VALUABLE PLAYER IN AL

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP) — If Mickey Mantle needs any ammunition for his $50,000 salary bid, he can point to his unanimous election as Most Valuable Player in the American League.

Only once before has a player placed first on the ballots of all 24 members of the Baseball Writers' Assn. selection committee, three from each league city. Al Rosen of Cleveland did it in 1953.

Mantle's selection was a foregone conclusion when he swept the triple batting crown with a .353 average, 130 runs batted in and 52 home runs.

Greatest Of Six Seasons
Actually the 25-year-old New York Yankee center fielder won the "triple crown" of the majors. His marks were higher than corresponding figures in the National.

The last to lead both leagues in all three divisions was Ted Williams of Boston in 1942.

It was Mantle's first MVP award in the greatest of his six seasons at Yankee Stadium. In addition to his three big victories, Mantle topped both leagues in runs scored, 132, and slugging percentage, .705.

A threat to Babe Ruth's all-time homer record of 60 set in 1927, Mantle finally lost out due to an extended slump in September.

Yankee Leadership
Mantle's sweep and the solid second-place vote for teammate Yogi Berra emphasized again the ease with which the Yanks won the pennant.

The point total, figured on the basis of 12 for first, 9 for second and so on down to 1 for tenth, found Mantle with a maximum 336 points to 186 for Berra.

The first 10:

1. Mickey Mantle, New York 336
2. Yogi Berra, New York 186
3. Al Kaline, Detroit 142

4. Harvey Kuenn, Detroit 80
5. Billy Pierce, Chicago 75
6. Ted Williams, Boston 70

7. Bob Nieman, Baltimore 55
8. Gil McDougald, N.Y. (tie) 55
9. Vic Wertz, Cleveland 45
10. Bob Lemon, Cleveland 40

CARLISLE WIN FRIDAY MEANS SP GRID TITLE

Three South Penn High School football teams have important engagements Friday evening as the conference and regular season ends.

Carlisle, defending champion, can wrap up another title via a victory over Mechanicsburg in their clash on the Carlisle gridiron which promises to attract a capacity crowd.

A win for Mechanicsburg would put the Wildcats into a tie for first place.

Middletown, currently in second place in the standing, should win handily at Waynesboro and would also enter into a three-way tie for top honors in the event of a Mechanicsburg triumph at Carlisle.

Chambersburg and Hanover meet at Hanover to determine which finishes in fourth place.

9 BULLETS IN TOGS SATURDAY FOR LAST TIME

Nine seniors will be making their final appearance in Gettysburg College football uniforms Saturday when the Bullets meet traditional foe Franklin and Marshall at Lancaster in the 59th game of one of the East's oldest grid rivalries.

Gettysburg won last year's battle, played at Gettysburg in a driving snow storm, by a 46-0 score. Franklin and Marshall's last victory in the series was in 1950.

Hungary's Puppet Premier Will Cling To Russian Pact

VIENNA (AP) — Russia's puppet Premier of Hungary, Janos Kadar, today rejected neutrality as a future policy for the nation and refused any negotiations with former Premier Imre Nagy as long as he remains in the asylum of the Yugoslav Embassy in Budapest.

Kadar set the policy of his regime in a statement to a workers' delegation, broadcast by Budapest radio, which showed clearly he has no intention of walking out of the Soviet-dominated Warsaw Pact or giving up the close ties with Moscow which set off the three-week revolution.

Kadar said that a neutral Hungary — which Nagy had proposed during his brief tenure as premier — would be "exploited by the imperialists and lead to war." The he added, does not favor a policy of neutrality.

No Pact With Nagy
As for the man the revolt had made premier briefly, Kadar said an agreement with Nagy "could be possible only if he changes his attitude and comes out of the (Yugoslav) Embassy to negotiate."

Nagy took refuge with the Yugoslavs when the Russians poured troops into Hungary and Budapest to suppress the revolution.

In a desperate attempt to end the general strike paralyzing the revolt-shattered nation, Kadar's regime announced a mass purge of former top Communists and the Premier expressed approval of limited "free" elections "at a later date."

Budapest radio said Kadar told the workers' delegation, however, that the only parties which would be allowed to participate in elec-

Temple scored both of its goals in the second quarter, Dick Mueller scoring on a 35-yard boot while Frank Sauciet connected on a penalty kick.

SAYS IKE WAS CONFRONTED BY 2 CHOICES

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The kind of world leadership President Eisenhower asserts now may mean the difference between a new war and none and between the retention of Western influence in the Middle East or the loss of it to Russia.

Two main choices confronted him:

1. He could have taken a strong, individual position for the United States — even outside the United Nations — and even to the extent of warning the Russians of direct American intervention if they send their "volunteers" into Egypt.

2. Or he could — as he did — throw the weight of the United States behind the U.N. without any explicit warnings beyond saying this country would back up the world organization to keep peace in the Middle East by opposing "volunteers" in Egypt.

Time Will Show
Only time will show whether this choice was the wiser one or whether, since Eisenhower left obscure how this country would back up the U.N., the Russians may interpret it as weakness and send in their "volunteers."

But if he had chosen No. 1 the Russians might have felt it necessary to chance war by defying him. To appear to back down under his direct warning would mean not only humiliation for them but loss of their influence in the Middle East.

By choosing to work through the U.N. and avoiding provocative statements Eisenhower achieves at least these three things:

Russians Have Answer
He maintains this country's moral position; he strengthens the U.N., which was badly weakened by the Russian assault on Hungary and the British-French-Israeli invasion of Egypt; and he assures this country of allies if it gets into the fighting as a result of a U.N. demand for military action by its members in the Middle East.

Maybe Eisenhower's choice is the best way to go about it. Only the Russians know the answer to that. But neither the U. N. nor the Russians nor Americans know at this moment how far Eisenhower would go to back up the U. N.

The President has a habit of being vague at his news conferences. But his meeting yesterday with reporters — almost at the moment reports from Moscow said the Egyptians were requesting Russian "volunteers" — may have set a new record for obscurity.

"Duty To Oppose"
He was asked what this country would do if the Russians sent "volunteers" into Egypt. His answer: "I believe . . . it would be the duty of the United Nations, which would include the United States, to oppose such an effort."

But oppose how: by making speeches, merely approving pious resolutions, or by force if necessary? He was asked what form "our opposition" would take. He said: "I don't know exactly what we would do. It would depend upon the circumstances."

Indicated Vagueness
And he added that the U. N. "is not by any manner of means limited to resolutions."

If this vagueness discourages

The Russians from trying a military adventure in Egypt, or confuses them, or sounds like a go-around to them, at least Eisenhower indicated before his news conference started he might be vague.

He told the reporters in his preliminary statement he did not want to say anything which might upset the delicate efforts now being made by the U. N. to move into the Suez Canal area and assure an end to the fighting.

greater supply of technologically trained manpower, the outlook for the future is serious.

Need Engineers, Scientists

"There are serious shortages. For example, the Scientific Manpower Commission has estimated that at the present time there is a critical shortage of about 21,000 engineers and 11,000 scientists."

"Insufficient numbers of young people of high potential are being motivated now toward higher education and training. Inadequate emphasis is being given in the basic subjects in our high schools. The teacher salary situation is especially serious. Right now we are short 120,000 qualified secondary and elementary school teachers. Shortages are especially severe again in the basic subjects of science and mathematics. Similar shortages are also reported at the college and university level."

"In this country we have about 60,000 independent school boards. When the American people are made more generally aware of the problem, I am confident that they will demand more from our school boards and the local authorities. Only then will we get the high school courses that we need and the teachers too. The heart of the problem is the better identification, motivation and quality preparation of young people of talent."

"The Armed Forces has lost serious numbers of officer and technically skilled elements of leadership. To cope with the problem, we formulated and the 84th Congress approved an entire series of career incentive measures to enhance the prestige and status of the military man and enlarging his fair return on an investment of duty and service to country."

"The problems in military defense today relates to the overall problem of working for a lasting peace in direct fashion, for we have learned from hard experience that it is essential to base our diplomacy upon a solid foundation of strength at home."

Plan Tea Dec. 12

"And we will move forward behind the leadership of our great President to a better day and to better futures for all of us."

Mrs. Harold A. Dunkelberger, vice president of the local AAUW, introduced General Paul.

A Christmas tea will be held December 12 for new members at the home of Mrs. Edwin Longacker, Fairfield Road, from 3 to 5 o'clock. A "Book Shower" will be another feature of the tea.

Mrs. S. M. Raffensperger, Mrs. John Glenn and Mrs. Marcus Rittler were appointed to a nominating committee to nominate a first vice president, second vice president, secretary and a member-at-large, each for a two year term.

A question and answer period followed Burgess's talk.

Egyptian diplomatic sources there still declined to discuss the report. There was a complete blackout on information at the Egyptian Embassy there. Requests for confirmation or denial of the report were met by "no comment" or "no one is available who can discuss this matter."

Seek 10,000 Men

Before the vanguard's takeoff, the international force at Capodichino had swelled to 467 men of four nations — Denmark, Norway, Colombia and Canada. More are to come, with the force finally totaling perhaps 10,000.

There still was no word of a clear-cut agreement on the exact task of the police force in Egypt. This apparently remained to be worked out by U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld, who left New York last night for Rome and Cairo.

Takeoff of the first units had been stalled two days by technical and political difficulties. The departure came on urgent orders from Hammarskjöld, who acted shortly after a report from Moscow that Egyptian President Nasser had asked the Soviet Union to send to Egypt immediately the thousands of Russians who reportedly have "volunteered" to join the Egyptians against the British, French and Israelis in Egypt.

Before leaving New York, Hammarskjöld said his mission was "to do what I can to assist setting up and getting going a United Nations emergency force in Egypt."

"It is the first experience of its kind," he told reporters. "It is the first truly international force. Let us hope it will succeed. Let us hope we will succeed in establishing peace and order."

FIRE DAMAGES
OLD BUILDING
IN LANCASTER

LANCASTER, Pa. (P)—A pre-revolutionary building converted to commercial use was badly damaged by fire in downtown Lancaster. Forty-five firemen were treated for inhalation of toxic smoke and five were hospitalized.

Damage to the five-story structure on N. Queen Street near Penn Square were put at from $80,000 to $100,000. Lancaster city firemen, with three suburban companies called to stand by if needed, fought the blaze for more than five hours.

The flames broke out shortly after 8 p.m. yesterday and were declared under control shortly after 2 a.m. today. Firemen were turned back repeatedly by toxic smoke from wood, rubber heels and plastics in the first-floor shoe store of the G. R. Kinney Co., Inc.

Call 5 Ambulances
Five ambulances were sent to the scene and inhalators were set up along Queen street, the city's main thoroughfare.

The fire was confined to the office building, but two adjoining structures incurred smoke damage. Offices of the Singer Sewing Machine Co. on the first floor and business and dental offices on upper floors were damaged.

The building was built around 1770, and was formerly the Grape Hotel. Robert C. Cardinal, manager of the Kinney store, estimated damage to his business at $80,000. Fire Chief Edward G. Koerkle said total damages probably would be at least $100,000. The cause of the fire had not been determined early today.

Congress in 1797 provided that all letters and packages to George Washington could be mailed free to him for the remainder of his lifetime.

CLAIM CROWS HAVE TROUBLE WITH FRENCH

UNIVERSITY PARK — Birds of the same species, coming from different countries, have trouble understanding each other.

This is reported by American and French scientists who conducted extensive research on the sounds of the crow and the herring gull.

The work in this country was conducted by Dr. Hubert W. Frings, Mable Frings and Joseph Jumber, all of the Pennsylvania State University, while in France the work was done by Rene-Guy Busnel, Philippe Gramet and Jean Giban, all of the Laboratory of Acoustic Physiology of the French Ministry of Agriculture.

The Penn State scientists working in Pennsylvania and at Mount Desert Island Biological Laboratory, Salisbury Cove, Maine, learned in 1954 and 1955 that herring gulls and American crows have various specific sounds that might be classified as assembly calls, food finding calls, or alarm calls. The French scientists had done similar work with three species of crows and two species of gulls, including the herring gull.

The assembly call of the American crow, when played to roosting French crows, prompted some of the French crows to fly toward the source of the sound, just as American crows had done. All other calls, however, brought no reaction from the crows nor did calls of American herring gulls bring response from the French herring gulls.

Cries of French crows brought no reaction from crows in Maine although a small percentage of the crows in Pennsylvania responded.

Dr. Frings notes that Pennsylvania crows spend the winters with species of southern crows, such as the fish crow, and therefore may have obtained some understanding of calls that are similar. The three species of French crows might also have learned to recognize similar calls.

The experiments, it is believed, indicate that the calls are learned

Military Leaves Are Ruled Invalid

HARRISBURG (AP) — The State Justice Department has ruled that military leaves of absence given to state employees since July 27, 1953, are invalid.

A formal opinion addressed to the State Civil Service Commission said the law presently allows military leaves only when the United States is at war or contemplating war.

Atty. Gen. Herbert B. Cohen said the law was unfair to those drafted in to the military service and that he will ask the coming General Assembly to change it.

State Mails Out Highway Aid Checks

HARRISBURG (AP) — State Highway Department checks totaling $14,781,439 in state highway aid were en route by mail today to 2,442 municipalities.

The checks constituted the semi-annual payment made under a 1956 law giving local communities 30 million dollars a year for road construction.

The department said yesterday 119 municipalities have failed to forward required information to district offices in order to qualify.

Two Men Die In Underground Pipe

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Two workmen were trapped in a huge underground pipe yesterday at the Franklin Works of Bethlehem Steel Co. One died and the other is dead.

The body of Cenilon Dorofey, 24, of Johnstown, was recovered four hours after he and Al Bender, 44, of Bethlehem, Pa. entered the pipe to free a piece of cleaning equipment which had snared. Bender's body hadn't been recovered.

The men, employees of the Industrial Pipe Cleaners Co., were helping clean the eight-foot pipe which runs about 300 yards to the Conemaugh River. It carries off hot water from the steel company's quenching pits.

PENNSYLVANIA APPLE HARVEST RUNNING LATE

HARRISBURG (AP) — Shortage of pickers and late October rains have combined to delay harvest schedules of Pennsylvania commercial apples, the State Agriculture Department reported today.

The department said the result has been heavy dropping of fruit in some areas, notably in Berks County where many unpicked Staymans dropped to the ground in late October.

At the same time the department said Pennsylvania farmers produced record yields per acre for corn, potatoes and tobacco.

The state average for corn was 53 bushels per acre, or three bushels higher than the previous record year of 1954. Farmers in some areas produced as many as 100 bushels of shelled corn per acre.

Late potatoes gave a record yield of 165 bags of 100 pounds each per acre, 20 bags more than last year. The late crop of 7,425,000 bags is slightly less than last year and comes from the smallest potato acreage known in the state.

Cigar leaf tobacco had a record yield of 1,700 pounds per acre for a total crop of more than 50 million pounds. The 10-year average is 1,520 pounds per acre. Growers anticipate that the extra high quality crop may command good prices.

Actress May Abandon Screen

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Screen star Elizabeth Taylor, suing for her second divorce, and producer Mike Todd, who gave her a big diamond, took a Florida break today from film chores.

"I may never work again," Miss Taylor said when she and Todd flew to Miami from New York.

Tonight they planned to attend a Southern premiere of "Around the World in 80 Days," a Todd production. They said they hoped to get a "few days of rest" in the Miami area.

Todd, 48, said he did not know when he planned to marry Miss Taylor, 24. "She hasn't asked me yet," he added. He called his gift "a friendship ring."

Miss Taylor sued British actor Michael Wilding for divorce yesterday at Santa Monica, Calif. She charged mental cruelty. The actress asked custody of their two children, Michael, 3½, and Christopher, 1½, and $250 a month for their support. She waived alimony generally were higher than last year, with the grand champion steer going for a record price of $5.10 a pound. The previous record was $5 a pound.

The Aberdeen - Angus steer exhibited by Pennsylvania State University, weighed in at 1,165 pounds, making it worth $5,941.50. Arbogast and Bastian of Allentown, Pa., purchased the champion for the Village Inn of Allentown.

A 1,050-pound Hereford steer, chosen grand champion of the 4-H and Future Farmers of America competition, was sold for $2,011 a pound. The owner was Joe Walker of Norfolk, Va., and the reserve 4-H and FFA champion, an Aberdeen-Angus exhibited by Ernie Frey of Quarryville, Pa., brought 50 cents a pound. It weighed 1,045 pounds.

Show officials also reported market hogs and fat lambs were sold at prices higher than 1955. Hogs went for an average of $19.43 per hundred pounds, compared to $18.23 last year, and lambs averaged $30.71 per hundred pounds, compared with $28.13 in 1955.

Reporter Claims Russia Will Suffer Loss Of Prestige And Power For Attack On Hungary

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY
AP Foreign News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The Soviet Union will be paying through the nose for a long time for suppressing the Hungarian revolution.

Kremlin leaders probably do not yet realize the extent to which their conduct has undermined Soviet international authority and prestige—and perhaps even the basis of their power at home.

Here are some of the consequences now being reckoned up against the Soviet Communist Party for armed intervention in Hungary:

1. In Western Europe and elsewhere outside the Communist bloc the entire Communist movement has been dealt a very heavy blow. Many Reds are quitting their parties in protest against the massacre of Hungarian workers. Many nonparty members who supported the Reds at the polls can be expected to shift their allegiance.

Effect On Tito

2. Soviet relations with Yugoslav President Tito will inevitably be worsened. The Soviet Communist chiefs will tend to blame the Yugoslav rebellion on "Titoism"—while the Yugoslav Communist will blame them on Moscow's policies.

3. The determination of the National Communists who now control the Polish Communist Party to throw off completely the remnants of Moscow's domination will be greatly increased.

4. Soviet difficulties in maintaining domination over East Germany, Czechoslovakia, Romania, Bulgaria and Albania will be greatly complicated. Discontent with Soviet domination, with the presence of Soviet troops and Soviet economic policies can be expected to continue to increase in all the satellites.

5. Inside the Soviet Union, it is reasonable to assume, the authority of the Soviet government over the Soviet people will be damaged. Factional quarrels inside the Communist Party leadership probably will become more acute. The Soviet leadership may finally learn the hard way—as many other colonial powers before have learned—that attempts to keep discontented and hostile colonies with naked force often cost much more than the colonies are worth.

In 1955 Western Germany operated 300 theaters with a staff of 17,000. There were 1,900 plays produced and 650 concerts.

SOUTHERN VET TURNS 114 AT FRANKLIN, TEX.

FRANKLIN, Tex. (AP)—Walter W. Williams, for a master in Hood's Texas Brigade who has seen the South outlive the North, turned 114 Wednesday.

His family canceled the usual celebration because of the illness of his second wife, 83. She is suffering from a heart ailment, hardening of the arteries and kidney trouble.

Williams, the nation's oldest living ex-soldier and one of three surviving Confederates, said he was sorry to hear last spring that the last Union Army veteran had died. But, he added, "it just goes to show what I've always said, the South is going to outlive the North."

Tame Celebration
Flowers from friends and relatives all over the nation poured in as the colorful old soldier celebrated his timest birthday in recent years.

Williams, who once said he wanted to live to be 125, has celebrated his birthdays lately with such things as an airplane ride, a trip to Houston, and the traditional gathering of relatives and well-wishers.

He shook off a siege of dropsy last August that had caused fears

REDS SOUGHT "FREE" FILMS

LONDON (AP)—A British newsreel editor reported Wednesday the Soviet Embassy had tried—and failed—to get hold of films that could be used to identify Hungarian freedom fighters.

G. T. Cummings, London editor of Pathe News, told newsmen, "The films could incriminate thousands."

Cummings said the newsreels, taken by Hungarian cameramen at the height of the fighting in Budapest, "show Hungarians shooting at the secret police in the streets of Budapest and setting fire to buildings and Russian tanks. Some reels also show Russian troops fraternizing with Hungarians."

He said the Soviet Embassy asked Pathe for copies of the reels. The company turned down the Russians.

"At the public cinema the film moves too quickly for people to be identified," Cummings explained. "But anyone with the reels in their possession could enlarge photographs of individuals."

Woman, 97, Weds Bridegroom Of 77

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Mrs. William Koch is a newlywed at 97. Her bridegroom is 77.

They were married Tuesday night with the bride's three grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren in the wedding party.

Mrs. Koch was Mrs. Ervey Martin, a widow for 17 years after a for his life.

Can't See, Hear
Two weeks ago he put on his resplendent, gold-braided Confederate uniform to receive a gold medal awarded to all living Civil War veterans by the 84th Congress.

Uncle Walt, as he is known, has been confined to a wheel chair for several years and is blind and hard of hearing. His family says he spends most of his time sitting on the front porch of his daughter's farm home 14 miles east of here.

During his recent illness, Williams gave his secret for long life: "I get up for breakfast, turn around for dinner and go to bed after supper and fox hunt for exercise."

But the old veteran, who once hunted food so his men could go on fighting Yankees, had to give up his hunting several years ago and gave away his rifle.

CAN OFFICER USE OWN ORDER?

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Does a policeman have the power to make on-the-spot changes in motor vehicle regulations to better expedite the flow of congested traffic?

State Superior Court on Monday was asked to resolve that question in a case that could have far-reaching significance throughout the state.

Importance of the question to municipalities was underlined by the presence in court of Philadelphia and Erie city representatives as the case came up for argument.

The question was raised by David M. Harrison, a Pittsburgh attorney, who appealed his arrest and conviction for making a right turn despite a policeman's signal to move straight ahead.

Harrison said the policeman had no right to order him straight ahead. He said there was no sign at the intersection prohibiting a right turn.

Defense counsel said the motor vehicle code states that "local rules shall not be enforceable if there is no official sign posted."

Counsel for Pittsburgh held that a policeman is a "living symbol" of a sign and that he must use "trained discretion" in expediting traffic.

first marriage of 54 years. Koch, a retired cigar maker, was a widower.

The bride said after the ceremony in her daughter's home:

"I suppose folks will say it's foolish for a woman my age to get married again. But I don't mind what they say. A person needs companionship. And the older a person gets, the lonelier they are if they have to live alone."

Banker Says Loans Triple In 10 Years

YORK, Pa. (AP)—A banking executive said Wednesday that bank loans have more than tripled in the past 10 years because of the "rapid" expansion of America's economy after World War II.

"The loans in our country's banking system in the last 10 years have increased from 30 billion dollars at the end of 1945 to 100 billion dollars at the close of 1955 and they are still rising," said Melville M. Parker, executive vice president of the Pennsylvania Bankers Assn.

Parker, president of the First National Bank of Lebanon, was the main speaker at the opening of the two-day lending conference of the state group here.

He said that in financing the "huge growth" in America's economy banks have followed "sound lending policies" and are taking care of the legitimate credit needs of their customers.

Widow Is Awarded $93,600 Damages

HARRISBURG (AP)—A Maryland trucking firm has been ordered to pay $93,600 to the widow of a truck driver who was killed in a collision in Millifin County.

The award on Tuesday, believed to be the second largest in the history of the Middle District of Pennsylvania, was in favor of Mrs. Miriam Wilson, whose 27-year-old husband, Robert E. Wilson, was killed in the truck collision Sept. 30, 1954.

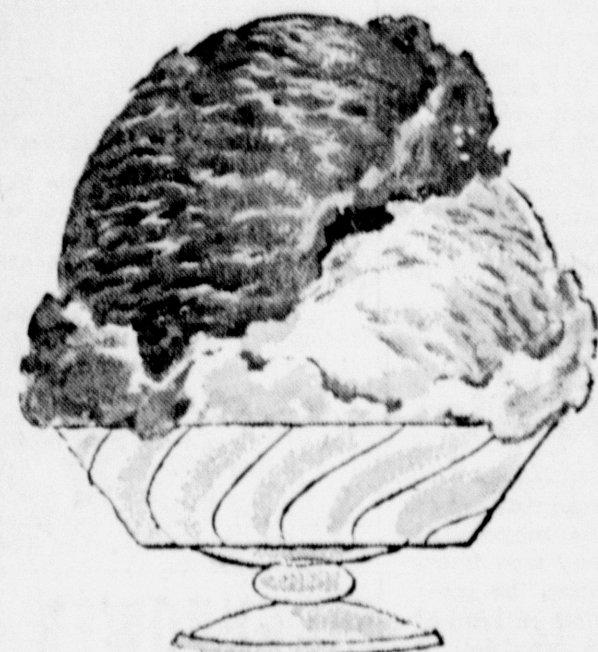

The jury received the case from federal Judge Frederick V. Folmer.

Mrs. Wilson had asked for $250,000. A few years ago a record high $100,000 was returned by a federal jury in Scranton.

All Joey, 12, Wants For Xmas Is To Be Able To Use His Eyes

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Many children going to school today are thinking of what they'll get for Christmas. All 12-year-old Joey Fillar wants is to be able to see like other kids.

Joey won't get his wish this year. But he may get it at Christmas 1957.

He lives at nearby Wilmerding with his widowed mother, a brother and two sisters. Each morning before attending classes at St. Leocadia's Roman Catholic school, he goes to Mass and says a prayer that his operation will "come out okay."

Joey's sort of a frail boy and he's shy. But he's not nearly so shy as he was a year ago when a Lions Club in his community became interested in him, saw to it that he had the finest pair of glasses obtainable and then arranged special eye treatment.

Mrs. Mary Fillar, Joey's mother, said the outlook wasn't good for Joey until the Lions Club came to the family's aid. Her husband died last February after being bedridden five years by arthritis.

Joey's right eye was injured at birth. His eyelid sagged pathetically and for years, especially after starting to school, he endured the stares of the curious. "I took him to the doctor to see if there wasn't something we could do," his mother said last night. "The Lions Club paid for his glasses and for a whole year now he's been receiving treatment at the Pennsylvania Vision Institute in Pittsburgh."

That treatment has so encouraged surgeons that in about a month they'll operate on Joey. He has double vision and is unable to coordinate his right eye with his good left eye but eye training exercises have helped him considerably.

Lions Raise Funds

There probably will be a series of operations, a surgeon said. Muscles alternately will be strengthened, then weakened. Joey will receive eye exercises. The entire process probably will take a year and it may not be until Christmas 1957 that Joey can see as well as most boys.

The Lions Club has pledged itself to raise more than $500 for the operation. Mrs. Fillar, whose other children range from 9 to 17, said she keeps the family together on $193 monthly Social Security payments.

Dream dresses for a little girl's favorite doll are these two lace confections so easy to sew for a Christmas surprise with an Anne Adams Printed Pattern.

The bride's lovely flowing dress of imported white Chantilly and val lace and the bridesmaid's blue marquisette gown with delicate lace insert are designs from the eight-piece Trousseau Pattern for dolls 14 to 22 inches tall.

Directions for making Posie's dresses with matching bridal veil and bridesmaid's hat, shown here, and also her frilly lace-trimmed petticoat, panties, negligee and pretty nightgown, are printed clearly on the tissue pattern parts. The pattern designer suggests using sewing machine attachments for fast results in making these "dolly delights" while daughter sleeps.

Fine stitching along edges of lace insertions and lace trimming for bouffant petticoats and lovely nightgowns can be done with the edge-stitcher or decorative zigzag attachment. Tiny hems can be made quickly with the narrow hemmer on the sewing machine.

Here's a budget-wise high fashion, doll-size, in plenty of time for your pre-Christmas sewing. This pattern comes in doll sizes 14, 16, 18, 20 and 22 inches. Send thirty-five cents in coins for Printed Pattern 4507. Add 5 cents for first-class mailing. Send to Anne Adams, care of The Gettysburg Times Pattern Department, P. O. Box 13, Old Chelsea Station, New York 11, N. Y. Each pattern order will be filled promptly.

EISENHOWER SAYS VICTORY IS "MANDATE"

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's news conference drew 258 reporters. This compares with an average of a little over 200 for recent meetings with reporters but is well short of the record 312 who attended his first news conference after his heart attack of last year.

Nearly all of the questions dealt either with the current international crisis or the situation resulting from the President's reelection and the simultaneous election of a Democratic Congress.

On politics and the four years of his second term, Eisenhower had this to say:

Election of another Democratic-controlled Congress means to him, the President said, that the American people are not yet convinced that modern Republicanism is going to be the guiding philosophy of the Republican party.

Eisenhower made that statement when a reporter reminded him that on election night he hailed his landslide victory as approval by the voters of modern Republicanism.

MANDATE — Eisenhower made it clear that he regards his top heavy victory as a mandate from the people to continue to push the programs and policies he championed during his first term.

He said to regard it as anything but a mandate would be arrogant to himself a certain personal magnetism that would make him one of the most egotistical people in the world.

Asked how he intends to go about trying to put across his program of modern Republicanism with a Democratic-run Congress, Eisenhower replied that he plans to work for such concepts industriously and incessantly. He added that he must convince any opposition groups that such a change in Republicanism is necessary.

"Political Philosophy" — Defining modern Republicanism, the President called it a political philosophy that recognizes the responsibility of the federal government to take leadership in making certain that productivity is distributed so that no one suffers privation through any fault not his own.

Eisenhower said his administration believes in the free enterprise system and means to maintain it.

On a domestic matter, Eisenhower said he believes the increase in consumer prices must be checked. This statement came when a reporter said prices have been going up again, and asked whether America's economy could remain healthy under such circumstances.

Sound Dollar Essential — Eisenhower said a sound dollar is most essential if the value of pensions and other benefits provided for older people is to be preserved.

Asked whether he is planning a vacation, Eisenhower replied he would like to take one but won't be able to until the international picture clears up some.

Indicating it might be some time before he feels free to get away from Washington, Eisenhower noted that Secretary of State Dulles still is recuperating in the hospital from an intestinal operation for cancer.

Composer Frederic Chopin wrote almost entirely for the piano. He made it a leading instrument in symphonic orchestras.

Millions Of Dollars, Tons Of Medicine, Food, Clothes Are Donated To Hungarians

LONDON (AP)—A veteran welfare worker looked at the small mountain of Hungarian relief supplies blocking the Red Cross office in London and shook her head in wonder.

"It has been a long time since England saw anything like this," she said. "Certainly not since the east coast floods of 1953."

Throughout Western Europe, welfare workers are telling the same story. The free world, they say, is sending the shirt off its back and the ring off its finger to help Hungarian refugees and other victims of last week's Russian repression.

Give $10 Million

More than 10 million dollars in money has been given or pledged in voluntary contributions, and the amount is rising by the hour.

Thousands of tons of medicine, food, clothing and other supplies have already been sent to Budapest or points along the Hungarian border. A vast backlog of additional supplies is clogging relief depots throughout West Europe.

Dozens of organizations, ranging from state governments to elementary school classes, have pledged assistance to the wounded and homeless in the revolt-torn nation and to the refugees fleeing across her borders.

12 Nations Open Doors

Twelve nations have promised asylum to more than 28,000 refugees. In Belgium alone, welfare workers say the number of offers to adopt Hungarian children exceeds the total number of those who have escaped the country.

Contributions have been received from prime minister and pensioner alike. In England, Sir Winston Churchill gave $2,800. French Premier Mollet set next Sunday as nationwide collection day. Street collectors in London told of old women throwing wedding rings into the brimming baskets.

The first known use of rockets was in China in 1232.

4 NATIONS CALL ON RUSSIANS TO LEAVE HUNGARY

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—The prime ministers of India, Burma, Indonesia and Ceylon called in a joint communique Wednesday for the speedy withdrawal of Soviet forces from Hungary.

They also voiced "strong disapproval and distress at the aggression and intervention by the great powers against weaker countries" in the Middle East.

The communique was issued after a three-day conference convened at the suggestion of Indonesia to consider Israel's attack on Egypt and British-French operations in the Suez Canal Zone. The final text, however, by mentioning "the great powers" could be taken to apply to Russia as well.

Reminding the world that these South Asian prime ministers represent 475 million persons, the communique said of Hungary:

Oppose External Pressure
"They regret that Soviet forces, which had been withdrawn in accordance with the policy laid down in the statement issued by the government of the Soviet Union Oct. 30, were reintroduced into Budapest a few days later. The prime ministers consider it the inalienable right of every country to shape for itself its own destiny, free from all external pressures."

"They are of the opinion that the Soviet forces should be withdrawn from Hungary speedily, and that the Hungarian people should be left free to decide their own future and form of government they will have without intervention from any quarter."

Want Peaceful Solution
"The prime ministers hope that, after the terrible strife through which Hungary has passed, neces-

Penn State To Win Big Maryland Check

TIMONUM, Md. (AP)—Judging of Shorthorn and Hereford breeding cattle and sale at auction of open class and 4-H and FFA steers highlighted Wednesday's program at the 9th annual Eastern National Livestock Show.

Pennsylvania State University is expected to pick up the biggest check when its 1,125-pound Aberdeen-Angus goes on the auction block. The heavyweight was selected grand champion steer of the show yesterday and judging from prices bid at past auctions, he should bring between $2,000 and $5,000 when sold.

Penn State also had the reserve grand champion, a 950-pound Shorthorn.

Changes will be brought about peacefully and in accordance with the wishes of the people."

The communique was issued after the three visiting prime ministers had witnessed a celebration of Nehru's 67th birthday at the National Stadium.

At the time of his birthday, Nehru's foreign policy has come under more fire than at any time since India became free.

Newspapers, some government officials in private comment and informed private citizens have widely attacked India's vote in the U.N. against a proposal which included withdrawal of Russian troops from Hungary. The critics said India's vote made it appear India was on the Communist side.

Nehru met criticism of India's position in Parliament today with a promise to issue a foreign policy statement Friday.

HOXSEY CANCER CLINIC TRIAL NEARING CLOSE

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A 22-day federal court trial to decide disposition of a half-million pills seized at the Hoxsey cancer clinic, Portage, Pa., moved into its final stages Wednesday as the government prepared to present its summation.

The government wants to destroy the pills because it said they are worthless in cancer treatment and were misbranded when they were confiscated in the March, 1955, raid on the Portage clinic.

In its closing argument yesterday, defense counsel asked the jury to rule against the government. Atty. Vincent M. Casey, asked the jury to follow a strict interpretation of the words "misbranding" and "mislabeling." Casey represents Dr. Newton Allen, medical director of the clinic and "claimant" of the pills.

Similar To Hoxsey's
According to the government, the pills involved in the trial are similar to those developed and used by Harry M. Hoxsey in his cancer treatment method. Hoxsey, a Dallas, Tex., naturopath, is not on trial.

Hoxsey said he attended the trial only as an interested party. The Portage clinic uses his name and treatment. However, during the trial Hoxsey testified he had no financial connection with the Portage clinic. He operates a similar clinic in Dallas.

Atty. James Martin of Dallas, representing Hoxsey, told the jury that Hoxsey has been curing people of cancer since 1930.

Husband's Quip Has Cost Him His Wife

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. Phyllis Tobler obtained a divorce after testifying that her husband once told her: "A secretary is more important than a wife—you can get another wife any time."

Mrs. Tobler said she didn't get along with the secretary of her husband, Paul, a wealthy industrialist.

Mrs. Tobler testified: "Once my husband picked up a ruler and a piece of metal and said, 'You girls fight it out. Here are your weapons.'"

NIXON IN FLORIDA

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon rested here today from his successful election campaigning. He plans to be here until Nov. 25. Mrs. Nixon and their two daughters expect to join him later.

The Portage clinic uses his name and treatment. However, during the trial Hoxsey testified he had no financial connection with the Portage clinic. He operates a similar clinic in Dallas.

Atty. James Martin of Dallas, representing Hoxsey, told the jury that Hoxsey has been curing people of cancer since 1930.

Prof. George Gutmann Has Lived On 3 Continents Since Campus Duties Here

A Pennsylvania professor-theologian has been teaching the humanities without a textbook.

George F. Gutmann turned in his textbook in 1944 after 15 years in a classroom. At that time, he was assistant professor of German and faculty advisor to fraternity and other student groups at Gettysburg College.

Since laying aside his academic robes, Gutmann has lived on three continents as an American Red Cross field director. While doing his big job of befriending the American serviceman, he has been teaching brotherhood and understanding to people from many lands.

Worked With Prisoners

He has recruited, during his career, Hindus, Europeans and Central Americans as Red Cross volunteers to assist the U. S. servicemen.

He has worked with prisoners—serious military offenders—helping them to understand and adjust to a world of law and love.

His assignment in Europe has given him opportunities to visit European homes where he has exchanged ideas about the democratic U. S. and Old World thinking.

Befriends Servicemen

As a contribution to the world of formal education, Gutmann has been gathering materials for a German language textbook during his European tour.

Befriending the U. S. serviceman is, to the Red Cross field director, primarily a task of helping him to solve personal or family problems through counseling referral and sometimes financial assistance. The field director has at his command the world-wide Red Cross communication system and is able to bring—usually within 24 hours—first hand information from ARC chapters at home to the servicemen overseas. The military command also utilizes this information supplied by Red Cross chapters to make decisions regarding emergency leave, transfer or discharge.

During World War II, Gutmann's work was in embarkation depots at Lake Beale, Bombay, New Delhi and Kanchrapara, India, serving forces moving into the China-Burma theater. Here he describes "a tremendous outpouring of service by people from all walks of life and nationalities to help servicemen."

Was At U. S. Academies

In 1946 he moved to the Canal Zone serving ships filled with occupation forces enroute to the Pacific. Here again he found the average citizen laying aside national differences to help the young GI.

Gutmann returned to academic surroundings in 1949 when the Red Cross assigned him to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis and later to the Military Academy at West Point.

Nineteen fifty-two found him at the military disciplinary barracks in New Cumberland, Pa., counseling the inmates and gathering their social histories through Red Cross chapters for prison authorities.

In Europe Since '54

Many of these men learned the understanding of brotherhood during their months and years in confinement. Gutmann recalls that in 1953 the inmates requested permission to conduct their own Red Cross fund campaign. They contributed $5,800, or almost $10 a man.

The field director reported to Europe in 1954 and has served at stations in Germany, Italy and now France where he serves part of the 322nd Air Division at the Evreux-Fauville Air Base.

At each station in Europe he has solicited and received the help of Europeans as American Red Cross volunteers.

Teaches Old Doctrine

Gutmann is a graduate of the Lutheran Theological Seminary and a student of theology. His experiences, in and out of the classroom, have taught him to believe in the worth of the individual. For the last 12 years he has been teaching this old doctrine in the far corners of the world.

Gutmann is the son of Mrs. Minnie A. Gutmann, 134 Hanover St. He has a brother, John E. Gutmann, in Baltimore, and another brother, Charles H. Gutmann, foreign auditor for Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. Charles makes his home at the Gettysburg address.

George received his A.B. degree from Gettysburg College in 1927 and his Master's degree in 1934.

SAYS ELECTION IS REPUDIATION

HARRISBURG (AP)—Rep. Charles R. Smith, state auditor general-elect, feels Republican statewide victories in last Tuesday's election represent "a complete repudiation" of Gov. Leader's tax program.

Smith told a television panel show (WHPA) Monday night that his election and those of other Republican candidates for state posts "expressed the opposition of the people to Leader's proposed state income tax."

Referring to Sen. James H. Duff, who lost his GOP bid for re-election to Joseph S. Clark, Smith said:

"I believe Duff probably will retire."

He said Duff's defeat by Clark was caused by "a combination of many factors" but on questioning, Smith declined to elaborate on the factors.

Smith said that when he takes office in May to succeed Aud. Gen. Charles R. Barber he will install an "information unit to keep the public informed of the fiscal affairs of the commonwealth."

He predicted that with the GOP in control of both houses of the General Assembly, the 1957 session would end by June.

Democratic Chiefs Meet November 26-27

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democratic National Committee's 11-member executive committee has been called to meet here Nov. 26-27 to decide future plans for the party.

One major problem will be what to do about erasing an estimated one-million-dollar deficit.

The party took a terrific licking in the Nov. 6 presidential race but broke a century-old precedent by retaining Senate and House majorities. On that basis it says it is looking confidently ahead to the 1958 congressional elections.

Aware that it was going to wind up in the red after the recent expensive campaign, the Democrats have already trimmed their national headquarters staff from a campaign peak of 175 employees to a normal of around 55 to 60.

Sam Brightman, publicity director for the committee, said in an interview that Paul M. Butler has no intention of resigning the national committee chairmanship.

Working above the entrance of a loop building, Fairley dumped over a bucket of paint. It scored a direct hit on Mrs. E. H. Stromwell, who walked under the scaffolding a brilliant blonde and came out a moist green.

SEATON URGES AVAILABILITY OF MID-EAST OIL

CHICAGO (AP) — Secretary of Interior Fred A. Seaton declared Wednesday that "it is of the utmost importance that Middle East oil continue to be available in world markets."

In a prepared speech at the 16th annual meeting of the American Petroleum Institute, he added that:

"This simply means it is important... that the United States continue its efforts for peace and assist in maintaining production and exploration in the Middle East."

He said that "western Europe will face disaster if Middle East oil is permanently cut off."

Double Jeopardy
"The countries of the Middle East, even though they have this oil, not only will slip back in their economy but also will give up opportunity for improvement in their standards of living unless they can market it," he said. "Those countries know their oil resources are valueless unless they have available the great mar-

1957 Oldsmobile Completely Restyled

Embodiment of the most sweeping model change in 20 years, Oldsmobile's 1957 Starfire "98" Holiday sedan has all new styling from front to rear bumper. The exclusive accent stripe starting at the belt line and sweeping rearward on the rear fender provides an entirely new color motif. The sculptured rear fenders incorporate a concave surface that accentuates the long rear fender crown. The twin strutted rear windows include three glass areas. The car is more than two inches lower and four inches longer than last year. Mechanical improvements include a new 277-h.p. "Rocket" engine, known as the T-400 because of its high torque throughout the driving range offering livelier-than-ever performance when you need it; better front and rear suspension, 14-inch wheels and a more efficient dual-range heater with better heat distribution.

OLDSMOBILES PRESENT NEW '57 FEATURES

Oldsmobile for 1957 has completed the most sweeping model change in the past 20 years, with distinctive styling innovations and mechanical improvement in every one of the 17 body styles in three series of cars. The body is completely new, creating a fashion-new appearance with deeper bumpers and a redesigned grille. Mechanical and structural advances include a new wider and heavier chassis, new "pivot-poise" front suspension of a design that country gradually becomes more difficult and more costly," he said.

He added that "we should... get general agreement to the proposition that the oil and gas resources in the ground cannot indefinitely supply all of the nation's rapidly growing need for liquid and gaseous fuels."

FLOOR SEALER

Penetrating floor sealer of good quality, correctly applied, not only improves the appearance of a hardwood floor but makes scrubbing unnecessary, thus adding life to the wood.

Glenn Johnson, who won the Michigan amateur golf crown the last three years, quarterbacked Michigan State football teams in 1941, 1942 and 1945.

kets of the West.

"In this mutuality of interest lies one of the basic hopes for peace in that area."

Seaton said that "insuring adequate supplies of petroleum is a matter of major concern."

"Military operations are powered almost entirely by oil; and essential supporting civilian services simply bog down if adequate supplies of oil are not available," he said.

Oil From West

Seaton added that before World War II Europe was getting three-fourths of its oil supply from the Western Hemisphere.

"The United States was a net exporter of oil; now we have become a net importer of a million barrels a day from all sources, and the task of finding oil in this

WOULD SEEK 4TH DIMENSION BY ELECTRONICS

LOS ANGELES UP—A team of UCLA scientists has proposed building an electronic brain in the hope of finding the true fourth dimension that may exist all around man.

Dr. Robert Tschirgi, a physiologist at the university's medical school, believes that man, handicapped by a limited ability to perceive dimensions, may actually be unaware of the true shape of things. He has advanced the concept that by studying the limitations of his brain, man may be able to build a computer that can peer around "the fourth dimensional corner" and translate what it finds there into a language he can understand. If that occurs, says Dr. Tschirgi,

"events which seem now to be unpredictable, and therefore unavoidable, might be foreseeable, and the future would seem less mysterious." Dr. Tschirgi and his associates, Dr. R. Dekaan and Dr. U. L. Taylor, have been engaged in a theoretical study of dimensional perception during the past year. A report on their theories was released yesterday. Time is frequently considered to be the fourth dimension. But Dr. Tschirgi proposes the idea that time is essentially a biological factor and is primarily related to a "clock" in man's brain. "In the world outside of us," he says, "motion may occur in directions which we cannot 'see' and which we must therefore interpret only as a change in time." With a package of brownie mix, a can of walnuts and a can of chocolate sauce on your pantry-freezer, you can have a super-rich dessert for unexpected company. The baked brownie squares are topped with the ice cream and chocolate sauce, of course.

MONTGOMERY'S NEGROES VOTE TO END BOYCOTT

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — The Negro bus boycott that became a symbol of mass resistance to racial segregation was voted to an end last night at the church where it was born 345 days before.

An estimated 5,500-hymn-singing persons crowded into the Holt Street Baptist Church to vote thunderously for an end to the Montgomery boycott.

The Negroes decided to return to city buses as soon as the U. S. Supreme Court's decision that bus segregation is unconstitutional goes into effect here.

Calmness Urged
Their leader, the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., told the cheering throng that the decision should reach Montgomery courts in several days. He urged calmness and restraint when it comes.

Until then, boycotters at the church and at a similar meeting on the other side of town agreed unanimously, they will walk to work or share rides with friends.

On Tuesday a state circuit judge granted the city of Montgomery an injunction stopping the Negroes' car pool that has provided transportation since the boycott began Dec. 15. A federal district judge refused yesterday to issue boycott attorneys an injunction blocking city interference with the car pool.

"Good Will And Love"
King urged those at both meetings to "be calm and reasonable with understanding, good will and Christian love."

"We must take this not as a victory over the white man but with dignity," he said. "Don't go back to the buses and push people around. . . . We're just going to sit where there's a seat."

King added later, "I wish I could say that when we go back to the buses on an integrated basis that no white person will insult you or that violence will not break out. But I can't say that because I don't know."

"If someone pushes you, don't push him back. . . . We must have the courage to refuse to hit back."

Bus Manager's Stand
King said return to the buses before the decision takes effect "is a matter that might be used by reactionary elements to plunge us into needless harassment and meaningless litigation."

Manager J. H. Bagley of Montgomery City Lines, Inc., whose bus patronage dropped by more than 30,000 a day during the boycott, said drivers would continue to enforce segregation until formally relieved of the state-prescribed duty.

The Montgomery City Commission has made no comment.

President's Thanksgiving Proclamation

President Eisenhower has issued the following Thanksgiving Day proclamation:

With the completion of the cycle of winter and summer, seed time and harvest, we come to the traditional time of Thanksgiving, when our minds and hearts turn to Almighty God in grateful acknowledgment of His mercies throughout the year.

Let us be grateful that the foundations of freedom in our Nation grow stronger with each passing year, giving hope to fettered peoples that they may walk as free men unafraid; that the yield of our soil and the production of our factories have been abundant, enriching our lives and enabling us to share our nature are being harnessed for other lands; and that the forces of peaceful purposes, bringing limitless possibilities of comfort and happiness both to ourselves and to future generations.

It is also fitting at this season that we should consider God's providence to us throughout our entire history. Let us remember the Pilgrim Fathers who, fleeing from religious oppression, landed on a bleak, forbidding shore and began to carve out what became this great Republic, which it is our happy destiny to love and serve. For their foresight, their courage, and their idealism let us give thanks to the Power which has made and preserved us a Nation.

Greatly Blessed People
Humbly aware that we are a people greatly blessed, both materially and spiritually, let us pray this year not only in the spirit of thanksgiving but also as supplicants for God's guidance, to the end that we may follow the course of righteousness and be worthy of His favor.

Now, therefore, I, Dwight D. Eisenhower, President of the United States of America, in accordance with the joint resolution of Congress approved December 26, 1941, which designates the fourth Thursday in November of each year as Thanksgiving Day, do hereby proclaim Thursday, the twenty-second day of November of this year, as a day of national thanksgiving.

On that day let all of us, of whatever creed, foregather in our respective places of worship to give thanks to God and prayerful contemplation to those eternal truths and universal principles of Holy Scripture which have inspired such measure of true greatness as this Nation has achieved. And let us, as

For many years the influence of the "evil eye" was believed to cause blight or injury. As protection against this perilous influence, amulets or charms were worn. Experience has revealed that neither of these assumptions is correct.

SUPREME COURT HOLDS COURSE ON SEGREGATION

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—There can be no doubt now where the Supreme Court is going, whether or not the South likes it, protests it or defies it.

It is going straight down the line in banning racial segregation in all fields of American life which involve public utilities, like buses, or the use of tax money, like public schools.

The court had banned segregation in public schools, in public swimming pools, parks and golf links; and on buses which cross state lines. And yesterday it extended its ban to buses which operate entirely within a state.

More Decisions Ahead
Whether the nine justices will go so far as to outlaw segregation in privately owned enterprises which cater to the public — like a restaurant — is something for the future to show. They face no such decision soon.

Nor are they likely to. For Negroes, fighting segregation, will have their hands full for some time trying to get racial discrimination ended in the various areas where tax money is used.

The court no doubt — judging from the consistency of its opinions, although a test case hasn't reached it yet — will in time ban segregation in public housing.

See Extensions
By the same reasoning the court may eventually extend the ban to any housing development built with government loans or financing since that money comes from tax revenue.

And, since the court has banned segregation on buses which operate within a state or cross state lines, it can hardly avoid — when confronted with a test — banning segregation on all railroad trains, whether or not they cross state lines.

The Interstate Commerce Commission, undoubtedly taking its cue from recent court decisions, ordered railroads and bus com-

Says Quality Good In Mass Education

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Pennsylvania educator said today that huge enrollments foreseen for the nation's colleges may not prove to be such a handicap to the student after all.

Already, said Dean Harold K. Schilling of Pennsylvania State University, mass education "has set in with a vengeance" at the graduate school level of some universities.

"But I doubt very much that the quality of graduate work at these mass-producing institutions has suffered one bit," he said. "The young Ph.D. today is at least as able and as well prepared as his predecessor of 25 or 50 years ago."

MEDALMEN MEET

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—The Medal of Honor Society has ended its first national convention after voting to support an educational foundation to provide scholarships for children of members. The society also thanked President Eisenhower and Congress for preserving peace in the world and keeping this nation strong.

panies last Nov. 25 to end segregation in interstate travel and banned segregation in waiting rooms.

But 13 states have laws requiring segregation of whites and Negroes who intend to travel across state lines. The ICC ruling does not invalidate these laws in so far as travel within a state is concerned. This mixes up the picture.

A test of the ICC ruling will have to go before the Supreme Court for a final ruling and clarification.

Yesterday's decision — which knocked out segregation on buses in Montgomery, Ala. — set the precedent for all buses everywhere, within every state. The other Southern states will not comply immediately, of course, any more than they did in desegregating their schools.

They will fight individually but in the end, in view of the court's position, they cannot win. The most they can do, unless the American government breaks down, is to delay compliance.

STATE REDRAFTS MUSSEY CHARGE

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Justice Department Wednesday began drafting a new complaint to replace one dismissed by Dauphin

County Court in which the commonwealth sought half a million dollars from Mussey Forests, Inc., Indiana County.

The court on Tuesday dismissed the commonwealth's triple damage suit in which the State Justice Department charged the Mussey firm and five stockholders with "conspiracy to cheat and defraud the commonwealth" in the sale of tree seedlings.

Judge Walter R. Sohn ruled that Atty. Gen. Cohen failed to allege specific violations in the state's suit. He gave Cohen 20 days to file a "proper and sufficient complaint."

Technical Matter

Cohen said the state's suit was "thrown out on a technicality" and that his office would prepare a new complaint.

Cohen filed the $486,184 suit last February charging conspiracy to cheat and defraud from 1937 through 1950 in purchases of trees, seedlings and transplants.

In addition to Mussey Forests, Inc., Cohen named these others in the suit:

Fred Mussey, his wife, Dorothy Mussey, the late Sen. L. M.
